

Travellers vow to stay at TV camp despite eviction vote

by Don Mackay, Daily Mirror

15/03/2011

TRAVELLERS on the UK's biggest illegal camp threatened to 'bomb, gas and burn' bailiffs as plans for an £18million eviction were voted through last night.

More than 500 men, women and kids are illegally camped on Dale Farm near Billericay, Essex, which has appeared on Channel 4's Big Fat Gypsy Wedding.

Basildon council last night voted to evict 100 families from 51 greenbelt plots.

But Nora Gore, a mum-of-two, said: "We will bomb them, we will gas them, we will burn them if we have to but we are going to fight. We are not going to go.

"I am going to chain myself to the railings. If that doesn't work we have got a few more tricks up our sleeves."

Tony Ball, leader of the Tory-run council, told the meeting: "Wrong is wrong. There cannot be one rule for one and another for others."

Travellers moved on to the greenbelt site – next to a legal gypsy camp – in 2001.

Search Mirror.co.uk

RSS | Site Map | Tags

Quick Search

Search

Search Local Mole for a comprehensive business directory list